Dear Chris,

I want to thank you so much for your help with our strategic planning and for the wonderful job you have done helping us design a new meeting format for our Board of Governors.

Your opening strategic planning session accomplished all we had hoped for and identified what would become the building blocks of our new strategic plan, which is attached. Your continued suggestions and participation over the next six months was a perfect balance of letting us decide our priorities and helping to inspire us to think big.

The meeting at which we unveiled our strategic plan was also a complete success. I have heard only positive comments and congratulations, and I have heard from almost everyone who attended. Thank you for finding such a compelling speaker who so adequately addressed one of the key issues of our new plan.

We look forward to our continued relationship.

For now,

Mark E. Torinus

President
